Whispers of Solitude

Photography by Tianyi Wang

January 13 - March 7 , 2025

Tianyi Wang, a photographer from Liaoning, China, now based in Los Angeles, is dedicated to storytelling through visual art. His cinematic works emphasize composition and innovative color theory, using dynamic contrasts to create a striking visual impact.

Specializing in street photography, Wang captures the authentic moments and emotions of urban life, crafting compelling narratives that are subtle yet powerful. This exhibition showcases his vibrant street photographs, inviting viewers into the unembellished beauty and poetic essence of city life. Through his lens, his works whisper eloquently, offering a rare glimpse into the complexities of the human experience.
